Re: ACF FOIA 18-F-0152

Dear Ms. Carter:

This is a final response pertaining to Case No. 18-cv-01509 filed June 26, 2018, relating to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request 18-F-0152. FOIA request 18-F-0152 requested communications to or from Scott Lloyd and numerous individuals listed in the enclosed request.

The Office of Refugee Resettlement conducted a thorough search of their files and located the enclosed 51 pages. Information is being released in full on 38 pages and disclosed in part on 13 pages pursuant to FOIA Exemption b(6). These pages originated with the Department ("HHS") and were returned to ACF for final release determination.

Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) permits a Federal agency to withhold information and records about individuals in "personnel and medical files and similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwanted invasion of personal privacy." The definition of "similar files" has historically been broadly interpreted to include a wide variety of files, and the United States Supreme Court has held that Congress intended the term "similar files" to be interpreted broadly, rather than narrowly. I have analyzed these records and find they meet the threshold requirement of this exemption. In this case, the withheld information consists of cell phone number of federal employees. Additionally, I have reviewed and weighed the public interest in disclosure of this information against the privacy interest in nondisclosure, and found that the privacy interest outweighs the public's interest in disclosure.

Feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns. You may also contact the HHS/ACF FOIA Public Liaison for assistance at:

Kenneth Wolfe, FOIA Public Liaison
HHS FOIA Public Liaison

If you are unable to resolve your FOIA dispute through our FOIA Public Liaison, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), the Federal FOIA Ombudsman's office, offers mediation services to help resolve dispute between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies.

The contact information for OGIS is:

BACKGROUND

The effects of urbanization and migration are frequently addressed in UN resolutions and debates on a whole host of topics ranging from the economy to the environment and global health. Urbanization and migration are the two most widespread and constant demographic factors that will affect populations worldwide over the course of the twenty-first century.

Families are disproportionately affected by urbanization and migration. Living and working conditions in cities as well as the risks and precariousness involved in migration too often contribute to families being torn apart and they make it harder for young people to form their own families.

Human mobility and international migration lead to increased vulnerability to poverty and human trafficking. Cities offer better infrastructure, and increased opportunities for education, access to healthcare, and housing. But they are not often friendly to the family. Creating family-friendly cities that welcome children should be a priority in order cities to be sustainable and societies to thrive.

OBJECTIVES

This event titled "The effect of urbanization and migration on the family" will bring together a panel of experts to contribute their insights on the topic. It will examine the harm to children particularly girls who are vulnerable to exploitation traveling without parents. It will be an opportunity for the participants to brainstorm on how to strengthen and protect the family; to create truly sustainable cities and unbiased forms of mobility.

Scott,

That is fantastic news!

You will have 15-20 min to present on the administration policy and the challenges, dangers to unaccompanied minors. You can include how the administration addresses the needs of these children. Would you also be able to address how abortion advocates are using them to advance an agenda relative to the recent controversy?

We can have another phone call next week if helpful.

Best,
Lisa

I can make it. As part of the panel, should I have specific remarks prepared (if so, how long should they be), or is it more of a Q&A format?
